

June 2011 Newsletter

Thanks

A big thankyou to everyone who gave so generously of their time in the planning, running and cooking for the Choral Cafe. Your help in making a wonderful event for all our families is much appreciated.

End of Term

Please note from the calendar dates that we finish this term a week earlier than usual. We normally run the same as the state school term, but this term will finish when the Caulfield Grammar School term ends.

Kodaly Choral Festival Friday 17th June

Main choir is performing at the Kodaly Choral Festival on Friday the 17th June. We will be singing in this concert with choirs from Ivanhoe Girls Grammar, Scotch college, The Peninsula School, Kilvington Grammar, The Victorian College of the Arts Secondary School and community choirs including Suara, the Da Capo Singers and Harmonia. See the calendar for arrival times and ticketing information. All are welcome.

Who is Oodoo? Oodoo is three US musicians - Malcolm Dalglish, Moira Smiley and Joshua Kartes with Sydney percussionist Peter Jacob. Many will remember Malcolm and his hammer dulcimer from the 20th Anniversary Concert last November, and may have purchased the Into the Sky Cd featuring these musicians. This is a great opportunity to hear our kids perform with fantastic international musicians in the beautiful St John's Southgate. Arrival times and ticketing information is on the calendar. All welcome!
